                                                           NEW YEAR'S EVE,
 The London press is unanimous and enthusiastic in its praise of this new comedy, which is now in its second month at the Globe Theatre in that city.

The London Times says:—'In False Shame' extraordinary success has not only been achieved, but achieved in a new direction; here is something quite fresh and original that has nothing to do with Paris."
    The Athenaum says:—"Mr Marshall has given us a genuine comedy—fresh, healthy and original."
      The Era states that "All the artists were sun
      The London Daily News says:—"This comedy will certainly take rank among the most successful dramatic productions of recent times."
